

What Students Say About Our Summer Training Programme 2026

UNU
Macau

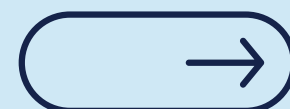

The experience helped me see that my academic background and expertise can have real value in the work of international organizations.

LI Wanru

PhD Student, School of Education

UNU
Macau

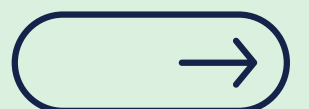

I gradually came to realize that building technology that is powerful does not necessarily mean creating something meaningful.

ZHU Yanjie

Undergraduate, School of Computer Science & Technology

UNU
Macau

Participants from diverse academic and professional backgrounds worked together to design AI solutions for real-world challenges, generating innovative ideas while gaining valuable experience in cross-cultural collaboration.

ZHAI Xiaoyan

Postgraduate, Union Hospital Tongji Medical College

UNU
Macau

We had opportunities to discuss career pathways with young researchers and take part in a project proposal workshop that translated theory into ideas for addressing real-world challenges.
